WELCOME TO

The Catholic University of America

The Orientation staff has been preparing the whole summer for these four days in hopes that you find Orientation useful and engaging.

Take some time now to get a sense of how you'll be spending your time during Orientation. Attending all the sessions is the best way to make the most out of your Orientation experience and really begin to understand what Catholic University is all about and has to offer you. Each session prepares you for success here at Catholic University and provides you with an opportunity to meet classmates and University staff.

All Orientation meals, beginning with dinner this evening, will be served under the tents in the parking lot in front of the John K. Mullen of Denver Memorial Library. Your nametag is your meal ticket, so make sure you have it with you for every meal.

And don't forget: Whenever you need help, look for Orientation advisors in red polos. Again, on behalf of all the Orientation staff, welcome to Catholic University!

Kathryn Jennings

Associate Vice President for Student Engagement

HOW TO USE THIS SCHEDULE

Next to each event in this schedule book you will notice one or more of the following symbols:

Students Only

(includes transfer, commuter, and international students)

Families Only

Both Families and Students

(includes transfer, commuter, and international students)

Transfer Students

Commuter Students

International Students

These symbols will help you and your family determine what events to attend and who the presenters might be expecting.

If you are a transfer, commuter, or international student, we hope you will attend the events labeled S and B, but we have also added events targeted to your specific needs. Those events are marked with a T, C, or I.

Please note: For some events, you are assigned according to your learning community (LC) section, which is printed on the back of your nametag.

Safety First, Safety Always

Great Room, Pryzbyla Center

All new students are required to attend this session by the Department of Public Safety on Catholic University's commitment to the safety of its students, faculty, and staff. Public safety staff will describe the efforts in these areas and discuss the University's readiness to respond to emergency situations.

Education Abroad 101: First Steps

106 Hannan Hall

Interested in studying or interning abroad, but don't know how to begin? At this information meeting, you will learn about the variety of academic and internship opportunities offered, paying special attention to the First-Year Experience in Rome. We will discuss eligibility, credit, finances, and more. With planning, any student can study abroad.

Navigating Work-Study: What Every Student Recipient Should Know

200 McMahan Hall

What precisely is "work-study"? How do you get your work-study job? What paperwork is required? Learn how the Office of Career Services helps you get the most from this valuable program and more.

Academic Support Services: How to Get What You Need When You Need It

Caldwell Hall Auditorium

Understanding the resources available is crucial to student success at any level. This session will explain the structure of academic support and the ways for students to get the help they need.

Empower Your Student: Valuable Tips on Financial Aid, Your Bill, and Registration Success

132 Hannan Hall

This session will cover helpful tips for students and parents on how a student can maintain financial aid eligibility and be successful during his or her subsequent years, as well as a primer on how the billing process works. The presentation will be facilitated by the Office of Student Financial Assistance and the Office of Enrollment Services.

Health Care Away From Home

102 Aquinas Hall

Representatives from Student Health Services (SHS) will discuss what services are available to all students. They will answer questions and make you and your parents feel comfortable that SHS will be your doctor while you are away from home.

Begin Your Career Journey with the Office of Career Services

201 McMahon Hall

Can I use the Office of Career Services as a freshman? I am an Exploratory Major, what services do you offer? Learn how to make the most of Career Services at Catholic University.

Multicultural Student Programs and Services at Catholic University

103 Hannan Hall

Are there affinity groups or cultural organizations at Catholic University? Are there career or graduate-level programs for students of color that I should be considering? Can I start an affinity group or cultural organization? How do I learn about various history/heritage celebrations happening on campus? The staff of the Center for Cultural Engagement is here to answer these and other questions you may have about getting involved in all aspects of cultural life on campus.

Cardinal Camp

108 Hannan Hall

Excited about The Catholic University of America and being a cardinal? Then join us for Cardinal Camp! This interactive presentation is designed to introduce you to the traditions and culture that make Catholic University unique. Learn the fight song, mark important annual events on your calendar, and discover the rich history that makes Catholic University great. Most important, learn how you can become part of the traditions!

Community Service, Mission, and Social Justice

121 Caldwell Hall

Come and learn about Catholic University service opportunities in the nation's capital, across the country, and around the world.

Mass

4:30 p.m.

Upper Church, Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception

New students and family members will gather to celebrate the Eucharist and new beginnings as members of the University community. A special blessing of students will occur at the end of Mass.

Center for Cultural Engagement Happy Hour

5:30–7 p.m.

207 Pryzbyla Center

Students and families are invited to join us directly following Mass for our annual Orientation weekend happy hour. This is a wonderful opportunity to interact with CCE’s professional and student staff in a laid back setting. Meet other students and families, hear about upcoming CCE events, programs, and learn more about Catholic University’s prestigious intercultural student organizations. Light refreshments will be served.

Dinner on Your Own

Families use Friday evening to enjoy dinner in D.C., see some sights, do some last-minute shopping, and say their goodbyes. Students who are attending Orientation without families, including commuter and transfer students, can meet other students who are orienting independently and Orientation advisors in the first floor lobby of the Pryzbyla Center (bring some cash for dinner). Whichever option you choose, students should be back on campus by 8:45 p.m. for the next event.

Sessions for parents and families are now complete.

Off-Campus Dining

Metro to dinner: Take the Red Line Union Station, Gallery Place/Chinatown, or Dupont Circle

Since most families choose to go out to eat, the Brookland-CUA Metrorail station becomes congested with guests and students trying to purchase SmarTrip® cards. We suggest that you purchase SmarTrip® cards before Friday night at the station’s automated dispensers.

Adjacent to Campus Monroe Street Market

See page 23 for shopping resources.

THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY OF AMERICA COMMUNITY PLEDGE

Preamble

Our shield bears our motto: “Deus Lux Mea Est — God Is My Light.” The psalmist’s words remind each of us that God is the light and life of our University community.

Founded by the United States Catholic bishops in 1887, under the papal charter issued by Pope Leo XIII, the University is an academic community faithful to the Church’s teaching that every person is a son or daughter of God, created in the image and likeness of His Son, Jesus Christ.

Our relationships are governed by the two great commandments: “Love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, your mind and your strength and love your neighbor as yourself.”

Mindful of these teachings, The Catholic University of America calls upon her sons and daughters to create a culture of light and love on our campus and in our lives.

Pledge

As a member of The Catholic University of America community, I promise:

- To pursue a life of virtue as I progress in my studies
- To recognize that each person is created in God’s image and likeness
- To live in right relationship with other members of our community, seeking reconciliation when it is called for and asking forgiveness when I fail
- To build a community where everyone is treated with respect
- To reject and witness against bullying and violence toward women or men of any race, creed, ethnicity, sexual orientation, or socioeconomic status, or persons with disabilities
- To treat the University and private property with care and respect
- To see myself as a child of God, choosing self-respect, a healthy lifestyle, and gratitude for my gifts and talents
- To share my own special gifts with the community

ORIENTATION MISSION STATEMENT

The Orientation program facilitates the successful transition of new undergraduate students into Catholic University's intellectual, social, and faith-based communities; promotes student learning and development; encourages independence and individual responsibility; and facilitates continued student success to graduation. This is accomplished through programming that emphasizes the University's academic and community expectations as well as its social and developmental resources and opportunities. Through personal connections with peer leaders, faculty, and administration, new students and their families will develop an introductory understanding and appreciation of the intellectual, social, and service opportunities available, and gain knowledge of campus and community resources.

of AMERICA

The Catholic University of America admits students of any race, color, national or ethnic origin, sex, age, or disability.
